MONDAY, JANUARY 16. 1738.

799.

Since our last arrived a Mail from Holland.

LETTERS of the 25th of November O. S. from Constantinople, mention the Execution of the Curtzy Bachy, who was accused of having had great Intimacy with the Kiaga of the Grand Vizier that was beheaded in the Army, at the Time of the Prime Minister's being deposed. This Curtzy Bachy was possess'd of an immense Estate, which is confiscated to the Use of the Grand Signior. Prince Ragotski still continues at Constantinople, where he has great Honour paid to him, and a Guard of Janissaries is posted before the Gate of the Palace where he lodges.

Letters from Turkey, by the Way of Warsaw say, that the Plague is broke out at Bender, and commits great Havock there.

Those from thence by the Way of Petersburg say, the Grand Vizier is set out from Cartala for Adrianople, to spend the Winter there; but that 'twas believed he would from thence go to Constantinople, and that he would be deposed before the Beginning of the Campaign.

Letters of Dec. 24 from Warsaw say, the Cold is excessive there, that several Persons have died of it in the Streets, yet that Corn and other Provisions are at a moderate Price. They have Letters from Zwanick, Mohilow, and other Places on the Frontiers, that the Tartars of the Crim and Bessarabra, were again assembled, with a Design to make an Invasion into the Ukraine, in order to favour another Attempt which the Turks have projected against Odessaw.

These Letters add, that the Corpse of Prince James Lewin Sobiesky, who died at Zolkiew the 8th of last Month, O. S. in the 71st Year of his Age, was to be interred in the Cathedral of that Place on the 19th Instant. The Deceased's Wife, who died the 30th of July 1722, O. S. was the Princess Hedwiga Elizabeth, Daughter of the Elector Palatine Philip William, by whom he had 6 Children, who are all dead except the Princess Mary Charlotte, born in November 1697, that was marry'd on the 9th of September 1723, to Godfrey Maurice Prince of Turenne, and on his dying 10 Days after the Marriage, obtained the Pope's Dispensation to marry again next Year to her deceased Husband's Brother Joseph Charles, now Duke of Bouillon, to whom the French King has lately paid several Millions of Livres for his Purchase of the Vicomte of Turenne, which is one of the largest and most ancient Lordships in France, and besides its Capital of Turenne contains 108 Parishes, situate towards the River of Dordagne, 57 in the Limousin, 39 in Quercy, and 12 in the Perigord.

Letters of the 19th ult. O. S. from Leghorn say, the News of one of Baron Theodore's Secretaries being executed at Bastia by Order of the Genoese Commissary General, has put several Families of that State who have Children or Relations upon the Island of Corsica in the Genoese Service into a very great Consternation, because they have heard that the Malecontents are so exasperated at this Execution, that they have threatened to use Reprisals, and to put every Genoese they can light upon to Death: And they have accordingly received Advice, that the very Night after the Execution of that unfortunate Secretary, the Malecontents took a Vessel which was sent from Bastia to surprize their Tower at Campoloro. A Serjeant, 10 Grenadiers, and 11 Seamen, landing for that Purpose, fell into an Ambuscade of the Malecontents who took them, and every Man of 'em was next Morning found hanging in the Sight of Bastia; which Execution was the more terrifying to the Town's People, because they heard the very Centries of the Malecontents call out to them, that this Execution was by way of Reprisal for the Execution of one of their King's Secretaries; and that their Generals were resolved to hang and burn all the Prisoners that are or shall hereafter fall into their Hands.

They write from Vienna, that its Archbishop the Cardinal de Collonitz has presented a Memorial to the Emperor, with a Scheme for preventing the Increase of the Protestant Religion in the Hereditary Dominions of the House of Austria.

The Letters of the 4th ult. O. S. from Lisbon, mention a remarkable Robbery committed lately at the Palace of the King of Portugal's Brother Don Francis. As that Prince was hunting some Weeks ago at Semora, some Robbers found Means during that Prince's Absence, to get into his Palace, and stole away all his Jewels out of his Closet viz. a Button for his Hat, and a Clasp adorn'd with 40 small Rose Diamonds, and 11 larger ones; a String to put round his Hat, consisting of 370 Diamonds, some cut after the Manner of Roles, and others flat; 2 Buttons for the Neck, consisting each of a Brilliant; a Sword Hilt garnished with 200 Diamonds; a Hanger with a Handle of Agar, adorned with 270 Diamonds and 59 Rubies; besides 50 Diamonds and 3 Rubies which garnish the Bow of it; and 73 Buttons for a Coat, each of which consisted of 37 small Rose Diamonds: At the same time there were stole 14 Rose Diamonds that were not fit; a Topaz inclosed in Gold, a Vessel of Rock Chrysal adorn'd with Silver, and a Gold Medal enamell'd, representing St. Ingracia.

Extract of a Letter from Vienna, Jan 8. N. S.

'The Secrecy with which the Marriage of the King of the Two Sicilies with the Princess Royal of Poland, has been negotiated so as not to be discovered by the great Number of Ministers of several Courts, who were Spies upon every Step taken by the Count de Fuencalara, seem'd to give a Sanction to the Suspensions, that the King and Queen of Spain chose to conceal it from political Views of the same sublime and extensive Nature as all those of the Court of Madrid have been, or seem'd to be, for more than 20 Years past. In the mean Time, whether the Aim of that Court was to confound the Politicians, or whether after all there was no Mystery in the Matter, the thing that first gave Occasion to this great and unexpected Marriage, is said to be this.

'The Queen of Spain having sent for the Pictures of four Princesses, qualify'd both by their Age and Birth to marry the King her Son, she sent to a Minister at the Court of Naples, with Orders to put them up in Don Carlos's Closet when he was out of the Way. This being done accordingly, when his Sicilian Majesty was hunting at Capo di Monte, when he returned and went into his Closet, he there found the four Pictures, and view'd them with very great Attention. The Minister whom the Queen of Spain had trusted with the Secret, took Care to be present at the same time, and ask'd the King to which of the four Pictures he gave the Preference. The young Monarch who had never seen either of the Princesses that they represented, pointed to that of the Princess Royal of Poland, adding, that were he to take his Choice, that should be a Wife for him. Upon this the Minister told him, that if he turn'd to the Backside of the Picture, his Majesty would there see the Princess's Name; the King was eager to turn it, and seeing that 'twas Princess Mary Amelia of Saxony, he said, she shall be my Queen, and I will instantly write my Mind to the King my Father, and the Queen my Mother.'
